CENTRAL HIGH SCHOOL NOTES.

Do not overlook the Pie Supper Saturday night at Central Hi. We will have excellent pies and a general good time; cake for the most popular girl; we need to finish paying for the $196 supplies we purchased last year; these are for all the grades and all are interested in this matter we will have plenty of the best pies; tell all your good friends; bring the girls and the old folks; let us have a great occasion and show the good records we have been making in the past.

EAT PIE AT CENTRAL HIGH, SATURDAY NIGHT, OCT. 22nd

Supt. A. B. Peters and Mr. Keen of Huntsville, were with us a while Tuesday.

Arnetta Beck has been indisposed this week but is back again doing good work. She belongs to the regular attendance class; in fact almost all of our pupils are regular in attendance.

Our Teacher-Training is organized and the program worked out; this will add prestige and support to the High School and will answer a long felt need; the best counties all over the State are doing this work in response to the desire of the State Department of Education. This gives additional credits and does not affect the required standard course.

Several teachers will attend the East Tennessee Educational Association at Knoxville, Oct. 27, 28, 29. They expect an enrollment of 2500.

RUGBY.

Esquire Pearson, W. T. Walton, C. C. Brooks, Deputy Sheriff Tim Frogg and a number of others, left early Monday morning to attend court at Wartburg, motoring over, quite an improvement on our former mode of getting there.

James Clark of Nebraska, having many holdings near Allardt, is a guest at the Newberry House.

Mr. and Mrs. David Case of Oneida, former teachers in our town were guests at the Newberry House, on their way to visit their son Judge Ward Case at Jamestown.

Grover Stockton and family motored thru town last Sunday, visiting Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Brooks.

Mrs. E. B. Coakley gave a charming luncheon last Friday at Twin Oaks, to ten covers, the house being beautifully decorated with autumn flowers and leaves.

On Sunday last Mrs. C. H. Dunning gave an old fashioned quilting, the guests enjoying a delicious chicken dinner.

Miss Lizzie Fletcher entertained with a chicken supper last Saturday eve, in honor of Mrs. E. Rowell, Mrs. C. C. Brooks' guest.

Ralph Pemberton of Lansing was visiting some one in our town last Sunday, and some one else was very much disappointed they could not take some body out motoring.

Dr. I. R. Storie and family of Jamestown spent Sunday in town, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. James Crowley; the latter expect shortly to move to Jamestown.

The Methodist Conference which was held last week at Elizabethton, made the following appointments: Oakdale, Rev. Belleway. Deer Lodge, Rev. J. B. Peters, Sunbright

Rev. Civils, Burrville, Rev. T. V. Peters. It seems to us that the great necessity is for strong men for the rural church work.

Let us have your Job Printing.
